Creating and shaping texts	Text structure and composition	Sentence construction and punctuation
I can write sentences on my own using my own ideas.	I can put sentences together. My ideas link together.	I can use capital letters and full stops most of the time.
I can use interesting words in stories and poems	I can write simple sentences in my writing. (The dog was black).	I am beginning to use 'and' to join my short sentences together.
I can use topic words in my sentences.		I can write my letters on the line.
I can use an adjective to describe a noun (a mean cat, a lean cat).		I do not mix my lower case and upper case letters in words.
I know that I am writing for someone to read it.
