Level 1B

Creating and shaping texts	Text structure and composition	Sentence construction and punctuation
I am beginning to write in sentences on my own, sometimes with my own ideas.	I can order some ideas (a set of simple instructions)	I use full stops to end a sentence some of the time.
I am beginning to use interesting topic related words.	I can write labels.	I use capital letters to start a sentence some of the time.
I can use story language in my writing.	My sentences make sense.	I can sound out the main sounds of words that I do not know and write CVC words correctly (dog, cat, man).
I can show the start and end of a story (once upon a time, one day).		I can write my letters using the correct movements.
I can write using my key words.		I always leave spaces in between my words
