Level 5A

Creating and shaping texts	Text structure and composition	Sentence construction and punctuation
I can use my own personal style in my writing with confidence and consistency.	I can organise my writing into a sequence of paragraphs with varied length and structure.	I use a range of punctuation to show division between clauses, to indicate, to vary pace, to create atmosphere or to subdivide eg commas, colons, semi-colons, dashes, ellipses
I can use different devices in my writing - eg flashbacks, effective use of dialogue, precise vocabulary choices, anticipation, asides, tension	I can vary sentence length and word order confidently to interest the reader (Having achieved your goals at such an early age, what motivates you to continue? Why fight on?)	I am continuing to write fluently in clear, joined handwriting.
Characterisation is connected to key events in the narrative and relationships between characters may change as a result of what happens to them in the story.
