

prospectus

Ideas to develop your creativity: (Box 1)

- Build your own Farthing wood. (3 points)
- Design the ideal habitat for your favourite animal from the story. (3 points)
- Create a 'Save Farthing Wood' poster. (2 points)

Ideas to extend your research skills (Box 3)

- Research about a mini beast and its habitat. (3 points)
- Draw and label your favourite mini beasts and write a few sentences to describe them. (2 points)

This half term's POWER Project is:

Mini-beasts & Habitats

Hand in your projects when you have completed them.

Last date to hand in Friday 14th October.

Choose your projects to achieve 5 POWER points or more!

Ideas to explore your mathematical skills: (Box 2)

- Go on a mini beast hunt in your garden and record in your own way how many you found. (3 points)
- Draw six ladybirds with the same number of spots on each side write a number sentence to go with them (2 points)

Ideas to explore your locality: (Box 4)

- Find out which is the nearest park to your house and go and explore it. Draw a picture of you in the park. (3 points)
- Ask an adult to tell you which is the nearest lake/river/canal/ to you. (2 points)