

Numeracy

Place value - focusing upon partitioning numbers into units, tens, hundreds and thousands.
Identifying and understanding $<$ $>$ and $=$ and ordering numbers.

Addition and subtraction - adding 2/3/4 digits together using the partition method.

Instant recall and number bonds.

Wylde Green Primary School Curriculum Overview

Literacy

The Wilderness War by Julia Green - focusing upon being able to express opinions and preferences, analysing characters, creating a blurb and a diary entry.

Geography

Children will compare habitats from around the world - identifying any differences and similarities.

Children will explore local habitats within their community.

Year 2

Autumn Term 1 2016

Science

Living in habitats

Children to explore different habitats and all the living things within them.

Children will take part in investigations and experiments to support their learning.

ICT

Using the iPads to create algorithms and to support learning within other curriculum subjects in the classroom.

Important Information

Spelling test - Friday

Mental Maths test - Friday

PE Kits need to be in school for
Tuesday and Thursday.

Art

Children to be able to express an opinion and preferences based upon a piece of art.

Children to create their own natural piece of artwork.

History

Children to investigate and research the history of a local woodland habitat such as Sutton or Rectory park.

PE

Outdoor - Tuesday

Indoor - Thursday

Children to wear warm, outdoor clothing and trainers for footwear.

Music

Using natural materials recreate sounds from woodland habitat.