Creating and shaping texts	Text structure and organisation	Sentence construction and punctuation
I can write stories that others are excited to read.	I can order my writing using next, then, after, first.	I use full stops and capital letters all of the time.
I can make my information clear to the reader.	I am beginning join sentences together not using 'and' all the time (but, when, if, or, until, because).	I can use question marks and exclamation marks in some sentences.
I can choose interesting adjectives (the old, scary woman).	My ideas and sentences are linked together.	I can begin to use commas after time words and commas in a list.
I can write a descriptive list (He wore old shoes, a dark cloak and a red hat).		I can form my lower and upper case letters using the correct movements.
I can use similes to describe (red like a tomato, as fast as a cheetah).		I can write ascenders and descenders clearly.
