Level 3C

Creating and shaping texts	Text structure and composition	Sentence construction and punctuation
I can describe the events in my stories in detail.	I am beginning to group my writing into paragraphs with help.	I can use pronouns (he, she, it, they) instead of characters' names.
I describe the characters in my stories in detail.	I can use when openers (later, without warning, meanwhile).	I can begin to use apostrophes for contractions (don't, can't).
I can use interesting adjectives for effect (fierce, grotesque).	I can use connectives like also, although and however.	I can use first person (I, my) and third person (he, his) correctly.
In non-fiction, I can write a short introduction or concluding sentence.		I can join most letters accurately.
In fiction, I can sequence events with an opening and interesting closing.
I can use headings to organise my non-fiction writing.
I can use powerful verbs (sprinted, gulped, grunted).
I can use interesting adverbs (carefully, excitedly) to start a sentence.
I can 'name it' (write the 'geranium' rather than 'the flower').
